

Continuing Education Resources

The Authority strongly encourages our employees to continue their education. In order to assist in your personal and career development we have entered into agreements with the following educational institutions.

Please review each program and feel free to call Madeline Matlak in Human Resources at 631-563-0213 for more information.

Dowling College, Oakdale

Dowling College funds twenty-five percent (25%) of tuition costs to Authority employees for their continuous enrollment in Dowling's Baccalaureate and Master's level programs. Spouses and dependents of Authority employees are also granted a twenty-five percent (25%) reduction in tuition costs for the first twelve (12) undergraduate credits and for the first six (6) graduate credits.

Tuition deferral is available for employees allowing them to defer payment until they have received final course grades. Tuition reimbursement will be available to management and qualifying employees as indicated in our tuition reimbursement policy.

For information on Dowling's degree programs please visit their website at www.dowling.edu or call Toni Loschiavi at 631-244-3266.

Saint Joseph's College, Patchogue

Saint Joseph's College offers tuition deferral to SCWA employees interested in attending their Undergraduate and Graduate programs. Tuition deferral is available for employees allowing them to defer payment until they have received final course grades. Tuitions reimbursement will be available to management and qualifying employees as indicated in our tuition reimbursement policy.

For information on St. Joseph's degree programs please visit their website at www.sjc.edu or call Theresa Saladino at 631-687-4525.

Empire State College

SUNY Empire State College offers unique flexible study options to fit employees' busy lifestyles with low state tuition rates. Course options allow you to attend in-person, online or both. You may also earn college credits for learning gained through life and work experience. Employees and their families are eligible to attend. Tuition reimbursement will be available to management and qualifying employees as indicated in our tuition reimbursement policy.

For information on Empire State degree programs please visit their website at www.esc.edu or call Baraka Corley at 516-876-4068.